

mediation inside the release

sensors outside the release evidence verifier detects 21/22 post-generation modifications of the referenced artifacts not detected: source-only edit (no source binding); coordinated unsigned replacement (no trust anchor)

The registry admits no instrumentable adapter, so adapter non-reachability is out of scope; the sensors observe the release process, not the operating system.